eComment: I fully support Crossfit Horsepower. This gym has been life changing for me and has helped me overcome many personal issues through a sense of community and teamwork. From some of the complaints I've read, it sounds as if certain people are offended by things like the names of the workouts. That's just ridiculous. This person has the right to feel anyway about something, but to suggest that ALL crossfit gyms should be shut down because they are a "cult" or honor fallen US heroes in a manner that he/she deems unacceptable, while making no attempt to actually listen and understand how we honor these heroes is absolutely absurd. Despite Crossfit Horsepower's many attempts to work together to find a solution, this person simply wants the gym gone because it violates his/her principles. That is not the way things work in this country. I hope you choose to work towards finding a joint resolution that creates a favorable compromise for both sides.
