

From: noreply@granicusideas.com <noreply@granicusideas.com>

Sent: Monday, December 2, 2019 8:54 PM

To: Ann Yang <anny@hermosabeach.gov>; City Council <citycouncil@hermosabeach.gov>; Suja Lowenthal <suja@hermosabeach.gov>

Subject: New eComment for City Council Special Meeting (Open Session - 6:00 PM and Closed Session to follow tentatively at 8:30 PM)

New eComment for City Council Special Meeting (Open Session - 6:00 PM and Closed Session to follow tentatively at 8:30 PM)

Miyo Prassas submitted a new eComment.

Meeting: City Council Special Meeting (Open Session - 6:00 PM and Closed Session to follow tentatively at 8:30 PM)

Item 2: In response to the November 27, 2019 "Cure and Correct" Demand Letter from Anthony Higgins pertaining to the November 21, 2019 Mayor Pro Tem selection: a) Consider whether or not to respond to the demand by: i. Rescinding the action taken on November 21, 2019 to select a Mayor Pro Tem; ii. Accepting public comment; iii. Accepting nominations for Mayor Pro Tem; and iv. Voting on selection of Mayor Pro Tem.

eComment: Hermosa Beach City Council people Mary Campbell, Stacy Armato and Justin Massey are disrespecting the voters of Hermosa Beach when they try to marginalize another city council member who does not share their opinions. The people of Hermosa Beach have elected and re-elected Hany Fangary to provide an important moderating voice to Hermosa Beach governance. Hany Fangary represents a large percentage of the Hermosa Beach electorate who value his leadership. The political game that Mary Campbell, Stacy Armato and Justin Masses are playing at is to try to insure that everyone on the City Council acts in lock-step and becomes a rubber stamp for the "approved" course of action. Democracy and governance works best when there are dissenting opinions and compromise. If we want lock-step governance and decision making we can move to a totalitarian country.