Subject: Helping our businesses survive

Dear Council.

You should know that many of the restaurants that you love, that I've seen you frequent, are unlikely to return. One Pier business owner said to me, "I see no option but to walk away and lose everything." It breaks my heart what this pandemic will do to the country and the fabric of our community.

While we are dealing with the Coronavirus pandemic it is important to also look to the future and provide any reasonable accommodations to business that we can as a community. Many regulatory agencies have stepped up, relaxing restrictions to help businesses by providing flexibility. The ABC is one of them.

On Tuesday the ABC relaxed regulations on all Type 47 and 41 restaurant licenses, allowing them to sell beer, wine and spirits in conjunction with take out food orders. It also allows businesses to sell inventory to each other and grocery stores. You can see the order at this link to the ABC website.

https://l.facebook.com/l.php?u=https%3A%2F%2Fwww.abc.ca.gov%2Fnotice-of-regulatory-relief%2F%3Ffbclid%3DIwAR3v7FZtzA4FxRnQ5BAGg0jPaZ30gvAt7dedpek4offtJBu7SvnsZF2auvA&h=AT0v5W0bv6b93aMDE9ebvYub09n7-LVjlsb-916Qt7Inu0aOMFXg6u44S6JTASmaeJLz_sMDJISWAw4LLA6gCJc0CrLyvAouMte7KS-30lf4semkUIOIHkxTJnluMktgn3MnKcBoeMCdqA1EUIg

While only a few of those restaurants stayed open for take out, I have attached a full list of all businesses covered by this order. Others may open to serve the community depending on how long this lasts.

I encourage you, beg you to support the ABC's efforts and the businesses in our community by not interfering with the ABC's efforts. It is temporary and will disappear as soon as the crisis is over. It has the potential to help business in a lot of ways. It can be a vital source of income at this time because hundreds of thousands of dollars are tied up in inventory, especially since this hit just prior to St. Patrick's Day.

Also, I have heard in the past that some businesses were either not allowed or had to pay very high permit fees to hang a banner in front of their place of business. If that is the case, I ask you to temporarily waive permit fees and restrictions so businesses can let people know they are open for take out.

Sincerely,

Raymond Dussault
