eComment: Item 6a is an outrage - forcing people to wear masks even if they are walking alone or walking with a family member down the street? Did you learn nothing from what is now happening in Manhattan Beach? Their residents are outraged by the MB city council weaponizing the police department against its own residents. Now the MB City Council is backpedaling because they should have never instituted a policy as onerous as this. For you to do the same is a complete affront to the people who elected you. We all understand the guidelines as it relates to indoors. But to come up with something as onerous such as this for outdoors is ridiculous. People have no problem socially distancing walking down the street. Between this and the proposal by the City Manager to remove the volleyball posts, you are walking a precarious line with our community. You are elected representatives, but you were not elected to turn into dictators who seek to control our every movement.
