

Proclamation

recognizing

November 30 - December 6, 2020

United Against Hate Week

- Whereas, the Constitution of the United States confers equality on all individuals, regardless of race, gender, orientation, or political beliefs; and
- Whereas, Los Angeles County is home to a diverse population of more than 10 million residents, including White, Latinx, Black, Asian Pacific Islander and American Indians and Alaska Natives. The inaugural LA vs Hate "United Against Hate Week," November 30 - December 6, 2020, will celebrate LA County's diverse history, culture, and traditions, while educating County residents on the importance of standing together against racism, prejudice, and bigotry in all its forms, while supporting social justice, inclusion and safety for all; and
- Whereas, the City of Hermosa Beach joins other communities in California and cities across LA County in supporting the inaugural LA vs Hate "United Against Hate Week", November 30 - December 6, 2020, as an important step in bridging divisions and strengthening our communities; and
- Whereas, during this week, we will not only celebrate the legacy and culture of the diverse populations that make up Los Angeles County, but also acknowledge the challenges they have faced and continue to face; and
- Whereas, Hermosa Beach is committed to strengthening partnerships to overcome hate and help address hardships faced by victims of hate crimes, and finding ways to elevate every community and the unique ways they make the City a better, more inclusive and welcoming place to live;

Now, therefore, I, Justin Massey, Mayor of the City of Hermosa Beach, California, do hereby proclaim the week of November 30 - December 6, 2020 as "United Against Hate Week" in the City of Hermosa Beach, and invite everyone to visit www.LAvsHate.org to find resources and remind your friends and family of the importance of standing up to hate in our community.
